

Be an ACCOUNTS Author!

I invite you to write a piece for a forthcoming issue of ACCOUNTS. All that's required is a story to tell, illuminating some corner of Union County history. You don't need to know all the history about the subject, just share what you already know. I can work with you to move it from an idea to an essay, and together we can add what you know to the historical record of Union County and its people. Got a relative or neighbor who also has a story? Pass along the name and I'll extend an invitation.

There is still space in the next issue. Don't confine your topics to the following, but here are some topics to get you thinking:

1. A bridge, road, building, or monument's story
2. Growing up in a long-gone way of life
3. Enoch Miller, mid-county builder and architect
4. The logging railroad at White Deer
5. Billmeyer's sawmill and boat-building business on Buffalo Creek
6. History of "Fiddler's Tract" property on Rt. 192
7. Hotel Shikellamy, on Blue Hill
8. Troutman's Pharmacy, Lewisburg
9. A local foundry or commercial furnace
10. The general goods store at the heart of any one of Union County's small communities

Do let me hear from you.
